

Nonsuch Dulcimer Club
26th Annual weekend

 A special event celebrating 25 years of Nonsuch *****

The Nonsuch Dulcimer Club is pleased to invite you to join us for our Annual Weekend 2017 at the Malvern St. James Girls School in Great Malvern, set below the beautiful Malvern Hills in Worcestershire. This year, we will have a full programme of workshops, performances, a dance/ceilidh, a 25th Anniversary party, and time for sessions and general camaraderie.

Our guest tutors this year are Jody Marshall (USA), Amanda Lowe (UK) and Sue Harris (UK) on HD, with Rob Brereton (USA), Michel Terlinck (Belgium) and Robin Clark (UK) on MD. Jenny Coxon (UK) and Lisa Warbuton (UK) will each provide a workshop focused especially on music of the British Isles to celebrate our Nonsuch roots. Frans Morre (Belgium) will teach a set of Flemish dances for our Sunday dance. Helen Edwards (UK), Pieter Blondelle (Belgium) and Karen Buglass (USA) will also be providing teaching and support for beginner HD and MD players.

This year we are celebrating the 25th Anniversary of Nonsuch, and have extended our weekend to three days, with an option to attend for two days only. The evening meal on Friday is followed by a concert featuring our guest tutors. There will be an open stage concert by our members on Saturday night, and a full dance on Sunday featuring British and Flemish dance music. Our weekend is informal, with the chance to meet and exchange ideas with dulcimer players from all around Britain and beyond. We encourage sharing and learning from each other; above all, there is the very special Nonsuch atmosphere.

We extend a warm welcome to hammered and mountain dulcimer players of all ages and skill levels, and especially to newcomers. There will be separate workshops offered for beginners on both HD and MD, with experienced and helpful tutors.

The full schedule of fees is on the Booking Form below. The Three-Day full board cost includes tuition, concerts, and full board and accommodation for all three days (Friday 4:00pm – Monday 5:00pm). There are also options if you wish to attend for two days (Friday 4:00pm – Sunday 5:00pm). Discounted student fees are provided for those aged 18 or under, and/or are in full time education.
