

Nonsuch "Spring Fling", 22nd - 24th March 2019

At Deneholme, Allendale, Northumberland. www.deneholme.com

Tutors: Erin Mae (USA) - Mountain Dulcimer, Damian Clarke (UK) - Hammer Dulcimer

Erin Mae is a frequent tutor at workshops in the USA, and has been playing the mountain dulcimer for twenty years. She has a unique and expressive performance style, bringing traditional and new tunes to life, and a sensitive and knowledgeable teacher. Website: <https://www.erinmaemusic.com>

Damian Clarke is a well-known UK performer and teacher who lives in Dorset but travels the country playing hammered dulcimer and hurdy-gurdy. Damian sings accompanied by his dulcimer, and will teach accompaniment and arranging skills, as well as some great tunes from his repertoire. Website: <http://www.damianclarke.co.uk>

The Spring Fling follows the relaxed pattern established over previous years; with workshops during the day and informal sessions in the evenings. In addition we are planning an optional joint tutor concert on Sunday evening (At extra cost, and in addition please book extra night B&B if staying at Deneholme).

IMPORTANT: Deneholme will not be providing a bar but there will be glasses so bring your own booze etc. Also please bring your own towels & toiletries.

En suite rooms at Deneholme are very limited so are only available on a first come first served basis. Should they become fully booked, any overpayment will be refunded by arrangement.

Booking: This booking form and a cheque payable to Nonsuch Dulcimer Club should be sent to:- Steve Gray, Allen House, Main Street, Acomb, Hexham, NE46 4PW, OR by bank transfer, please contact Steve for details & email to steve@bellmetalbanana.co.uk

Any other enquiries, please call Liz Conway 01434 683251, email: walzil.dulcimer@gmail.com
